Formal ethical approval must be obtained for all research projects 'involving research on human subjects or human tissues or databases of personal information to be carried out by University staff or students on University premises, or at any location, where there is no other acceptable provision for ethical consideration'. Final year projects (ELEC340) and year 3 MEng projects (ELEC440) involving human participation must be undertaken in a way that safeguards the dignity, rights, health, safety, and privacy of those involved.

It should be noted that this policy covers all research methodologies including such activities as informal interviews, accessing personal files in an archive, or on-line data gathering. The requirement to obtain ethical review applies with equal force to projects undertaken by undergraduate students. For these projects, it is the responsibility of the supervisor to ensure that the ethical issues of the research are fully assessed and that formal ethical approval is obtained before the project commences.
